

Ideal for the person on the go. Now you can sync/recharge your handheld directly from the USB port on your PC or Mac®. JuST Male it in and you're charging while synchronizing your data (additional manufacturer software required for synchronization). This cable quickly recharges iPAQ's internal lithium ion battery while syncing data between your PDA and your PC. Built to the highest quality standards using flexible and durable wire, this cable has molded connectors with strain relief for durability. Its small lightweight design makes it an easy travel companion.
